

THE MORNING APPEAL.

TUESDAY.....JUNE 11

THE BRUNSWICK LEDGE JOB.

The proposed purchase of the Brunswick Ledge has all the appearance of another Mides-Overman job on a large scale. It is now proposed that a number of mining companies on the Comstock, join forces and purchase the Brunswick Ledge a so called mineral belt lying about a mile east of the Comstock.

Already the San Francisco papers are preparing the public mind for the deal, but in none of these flowery articles is any mention made of the parties who are supposed to own the Brunswick Lode.

It will probably transpire that the same parties who own the Brunswick Lode are the parties who also represent the purchasers, and they simply propose to sell the property to themselves and a lot of duped stockholders in the Comstock mines will furnish the money, just as the Mides-Overman deal. The same people owned both mines and the non-divided mine was sold to the divided paying mine for $50,000. One crowd owned both mines and merely took the money out of one pocket and put it into the other. After it got into the second pocket, the stockholders could only find it as an entry on the books. The APPEAL advises stock men and stockholders to carefully investigate this proposed purchase of the Brunswick Lode for it smells rankly of the same sort of jobbery.

A Pure Fake.

The Examiner's telegraphic correspondent has wired a very palpable fake from Denver relative to Heney. He is made to say that he has come home to see his sick wife, when as a matter of fact there is no healthier woman in Nevada.

Here is a story of his marvellous escape from nine Secret Service officials.

"Once up at Kokome they came near getting me. I was standing in a shanty there when some one tipped off and nine Secret Service officers surrounded the cabin. It was broad daylight, but showing, so that you couldn't see two feet ahead of your nose. The door was locked, and when they came knocking at it I ducked out through the backdoor. When they broke in a few of them came around one corner of the shanty while the others were hunting inside, but I moved to the opposite corner outside and then made a dead break through the snow for the mountains. That was a tough snowstorm, but it helped me out, I tell you."

The idea of nine detectives not following tracks in the snow only two minutes old is very jarring.

The Fourth.

The eagle bird will scream in Carson on the 4th and don't make any mistake. The entire State will be here. The Virginia band will come down. Gardnerville, Genoa, Empire, Washoe City and all hands will come. There is now nearly $700 collected and more is promised. The enthusiasm is ripe and everybody is standing in.

So far Miss Ollie Longabaugh of Empire is first choice for the Goddess of Liberty.

As Others See Us

Some of the Republican papers of the State claim that John T. Jones, accused of stealing bullion worth $75,000 from the Carson Mint, is a persecuted individual because he was held in $25,000 bonds. Only $300 worth of bullion was found in Pickler's yard and his bond was fixed at $1000. Jones is a Republican and Pickler claims to be a Democrat. It looks as if Pickler was the persecuted individual.—Independent.

"My agency in procuring the passage of the National Banking act was the greatest financial mistake of my life," says Solomon P. Chase. "It has built up a monopoly that affects every interest in the country. It should be repealed. But before this can be accomplished the people will be arrayed on one side and the banks on the other in such a contest as we have never seen in this country."

The Pioche Record says that the only use the Democrats have for their platform is to take up a plank occasionally to dust the seat of Grover's pants.

Song of the Republican press of Nevada:
"We'll all drink stone blind, when Heney comes marching home."

Locusts are reported in countless numbers in Placer county Cal. They are destroying everything green in sight.

The City Trustees passed an ordinance last evening relative to bicycles. Details will be published later.
